

N3D Group's Anti-Spam & Unsolicited Marketing Policy

1. Policy Purpose

This policy strictly prohibits the use of unsolicited messages to promote, advertise, or direct traffic to this website, its domains, or associated services. Protecting our organization's brand, network integrity, and deliverability is paramount.

2. Prohibited Activities

Users, affiliates, partners, marketing agencies, and contractors are explicitly forbidden from sending or facilitating:

- Unsolicited Bulk or Commercial Email (UBE/UCE): Sending direct promotional emails to recipients who have not given verifiable, explicit prior opt-in consent.
- Third-Party Purchased Lists: Advertising this site using rented, bought, harvested, or scraped email/contact lists.
- Deceptive Messaging: Using false, misleading, or deceptive headers, return addresses, or subject lines in any promotional communication mentioning this website.
- Social & Platform Spam: Posting unsolicited promotional links or bulk messages across social media, forums, comment sections, messaging apps (e.g., WhatsApp, Telegram), or SMS networks.
- Missing Unsubscribe / Identification Controls: Omitting a clear, functioning unsubscribe mechanism, physical mailing address, or legitimate sender identity in permitted commercial communications.

3. Third-Party & Affiliate Compliance

If you market on behalf of this website through an affiliate program, ad agency, or third-party channel, you must maintain verifiable proof of opt-in consent for every contact on your distribution lists. You must produce this proof immediately upon request.

4. Enforcement & Consequences

Violations of this policy severely impair our domain reputation and subject our organization to regulatory penalties. Any individual or entity found violating this policy faces immediate consequences, including:

- Immediate termination or suspension of user accounts, affiliate relationships, or service contracts without prior notice.

- Forfeiture of accrued commissions, account credits, or service fees (where applicable).
- Liability for administrative costs, investigation fees, and legal damages resulting from the violation.

5. Reporting Violations

If you have received an unsolicited message advertising this website or wish to report a violation of this policy, please forward the message with full message headers to:

Admin@n3dgroup.com